Detailed Itinerary

Day 1 - Arrive in Leh, acclimatise and attend orientation

On arrival at Leh Airport, arrange your own transfer to the hotel and rest for acclimatisation at 11,500 feet. In the evening, attend the mandatory Road Captain briefing on riding formation, hand signals, convoy discipline, altitude sickness precautions, water crossings and safety rules. Have dinner and stay overnight in Leh.

Day 2 - Leh to Nubra Valley via Khardung La, Diskit Monastery and Hunder Sand Dunes

Start from Leh at 11:00 AM and cross Khardung La Pass at 18,380 feet. Stop for photos at the pass, then descend through off-road sections and water crossings to Nubra Valley. Visit Diskit Monastery and its 32-metre Maitreya Buddha Statue, then Hunder Sand Dunes. You can take a Double Hump Bactrian Camel Ride at your own cost. Join the evening bonfire and stay overnight at a Nubra camp.

Day 3 - Nubra Valley to Pangong Lake via Shyok Valley

Ride through Agham and Shyok villages towards Pangong. Follow the Shyok River riverbed across sand, boulders and water crossings of up to 2 feet. If Shyok is closed, we will take Wari La Pass at 17,400 feet. Continue via Durbuk to Pangong Tso at 13,900 feet and visit the 3 Idiots Point. Stay overnight in a Pangong cottage.

Day 4 - Pangong to MigLa / Umling La and Hanle via Dungti, Koyul and Norbula Pass

Start early and ride via Chushul and Tsaga La through the Indo-China border area. Keep your ID ready. Continue to Dungti and Koyul, then cross Photang La and Norbula Pass to MigLa / Umling La Pass at 19,024 feet. Reach the world's highest motorable road at 19,024 feet, higher than Everest Base Camp. Spend only about 10 minutes at the top, and we descend to Hanle, visit Hanle Observatory and stay overnight in a homestay. If MigLa is closed, the route covers Umling La Pass.

Day 5 - Hanle to Tso Moriri via Punguk and Chumur

Ride through Changthang Wildlife Sanctuary via Punguk Lake and Ryul Lake, then pass Chumur, a remote nomad village. You may spot kiangs, Himalayan marmots and black-necked cranes. Continue to Tso Moriri Lake at 15,000 feet, then visit Korzok Village and its 500-year-old monastery. Stay overnight in a Tso Moriri cottage or homestay.

Day 6 - Tso Moriri to Leh via Puga Valley and Chumathang

Ride back to Leh via Puga Valley, known for sulphur mines and geothermal activity, and Chumathang Hot Springs. Cross Mahe Bridge and continue via Nyoma, Thiksey Monastery and Rancho School. Reach Leh by evening for bike servicing and shopping. Today is your last day on the bike; have a celebration dinner and stay overnight in Leh.

Day 7 - Depart from Leh

After breakfast, check out of your Leh hotel by 10:00 AM. Arrange your own transfer to Leh Airport for your flight home. Your trip ends in Leh.
