Detailed Itinerary

Day 1 - Arrive in Leh, acclimatise and attend orientation

On arrival at Leh Airport, arrange your own transfer to the hotel and rest for acclimatisation at 11,500 feet. At 7:00 PM, attend the mandatory briefing on riding formation, hand signals, convoy discipline, altitude sickness precautions, water crossings and safety rules. Have dinner and stay overnight in Leh.

Day 2 - Leh to Nubra Valley via Khardung La, Diskit Monastery and Hunder Sand Dunes

Start from Leh at 11:00 AM and cross Khardung La Pass at 18,380 feet. Stop for photos at the pass, then descend through off-road patches and water crossings to Nubra Valley. Visit Diskit Monastery and its 32-metre Maitreya Buddha Statue, then Hunder Sand Dunes. You can take a Double Hump Bactrian Camel Ride at your own cost. Join the evening bonfire and stay overnight at a Nubra camp.

Day 3 - Nubra Valley to Pangong Lake via Shyok Valley

Ride via Agham and Shyok villages through remote border areas. Follow the Shyok River bed across sand, boulders and water crossings up to 2 feet deep. If high water closes the Shyok route, your Road Captain will divert you via Wari La Pass at 17,400 feet. Continue via Durbuk to Pangong Tso at 13,900 feet and visit the 3 Idiots Point. Stay overnight in a Pangong cottage; mobile network is unavailable.

Day 4 - Pangong to MigLa / Umling La and Hanle via Dungti, Koyul and Norbula Pass

Start after breakfast and ride via Chushul and Tsaga La through the border area; keep your ID ready. Continue to Dungti and Koyul, then cross Photang La and Norbula Pass to MigLa / Umling La Pass at 19,024 feet. Stay about 10 minutes at the top, then descend to Hanle Village and visit Hanle Observatory. Stay overnight in a basic, comfortable local homestay. If MigLa is closed, we will cover Umling La Pass.

Day 5 - Hanle to Tso Moriri via Punguk and Chumur

Ride from Hanle toward Tso Moriri via Punguk Lake and Ryul Lake, then pass Chumur, a remote village of the Changpa nomads. Travel through Changthang Wildlife Sanctuary, where you may spot kiangs, Himalayan marmots and black-necked cranes. Reach Tso Moriri Lake at 15,000 feet, then visit Korzok Village and its 500-year-old monastery. Stay overnight in a cottage or homestay.

Day 6 - Tso Moriri to Leh via Puga Valley and Chumathang

Ride back to Leh via Puga Valley, known for sulphur mines and geothermal activity, and Chumathang Hot Springs. Cross Mahe Bridge, Nyoma, Thiksey Monastery and Rancho School. Reach Leh by evening for bike servicing and shopping. Join the de-flag celebration dinner and stay overnight in a Leh hotel.

Day 7 - Leh local sightseeing

After breakfast, explore Leh by taxi. Visit Hall of Fame Museum, Gurudwara Pathar Sahib, Magnetic Hill and Sangam Point, where the Indus and Zanskar rivers meet. In the evening, visit Shanti Stupa for panoramic sunset views of Leh. Enjoy a celebratory dinner and stay overnight in Leh.

Day 8 - Depart from Leh

After breakfast, check out of your Leh hotel by 10:00 AM. Arrange your own transfer to Leh Airport for your flight home. Your trip ends in Leh.
